HELLO, I'M

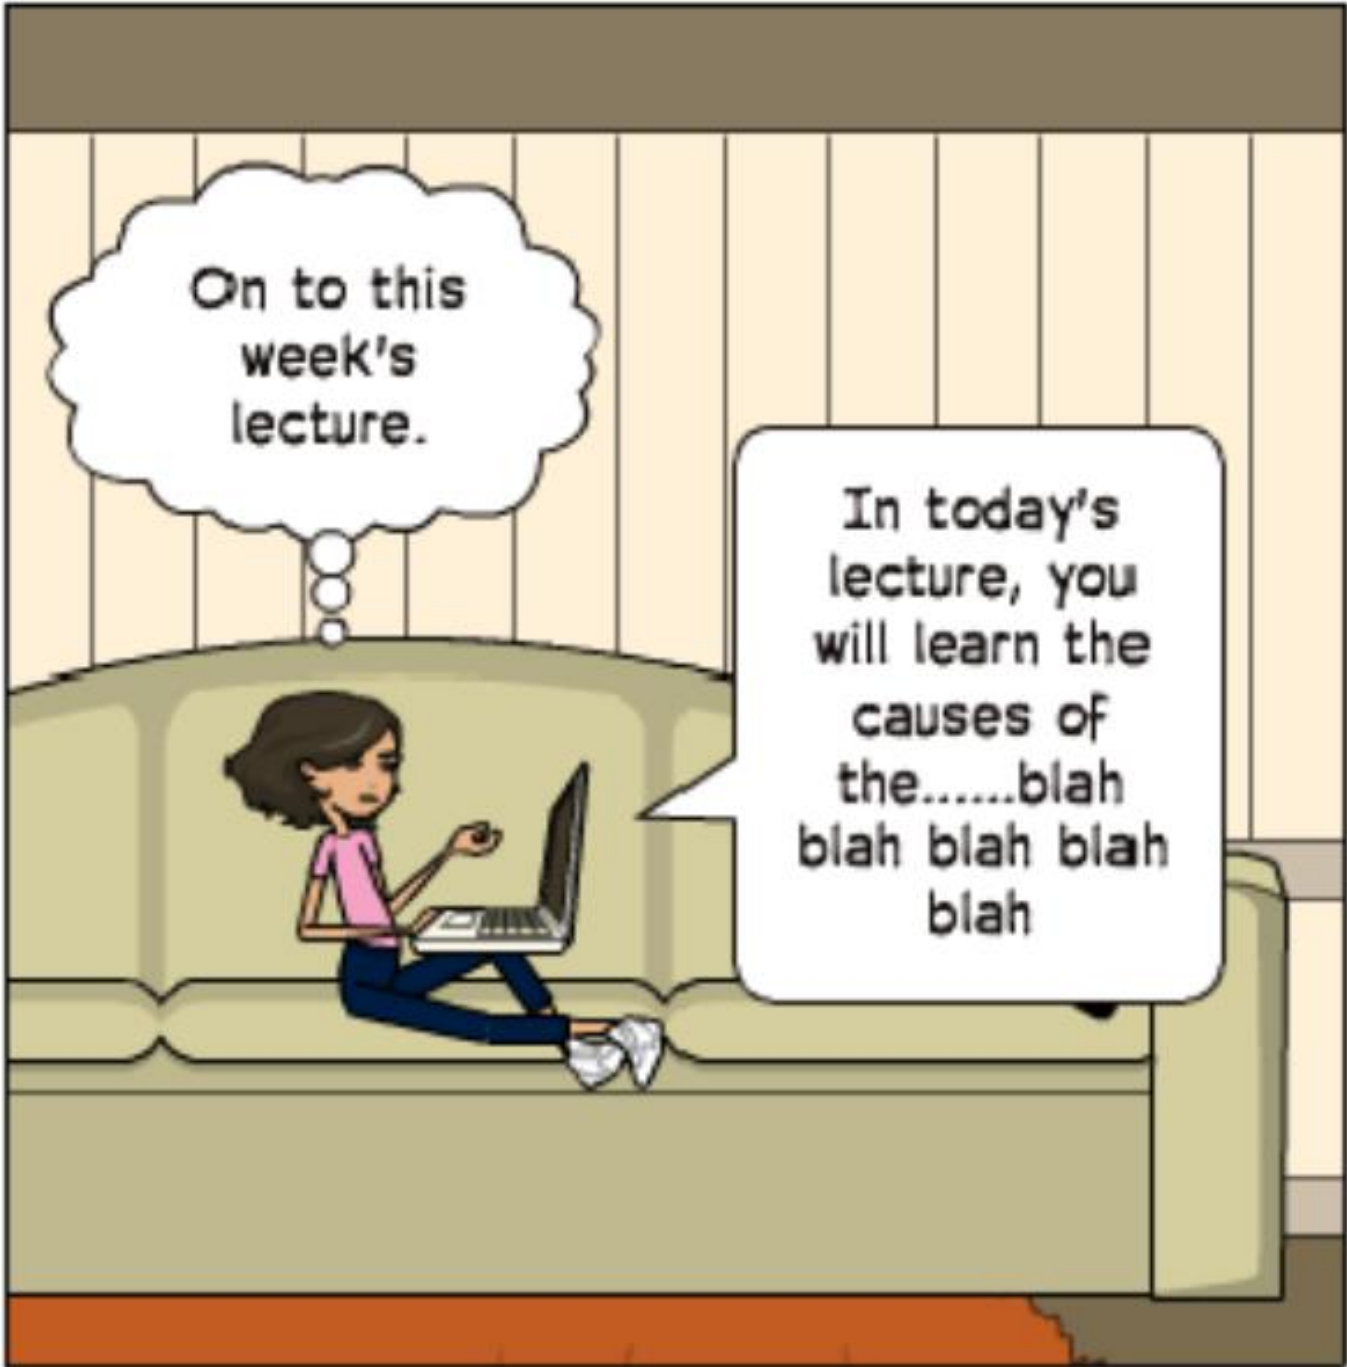

Michele Mosco.

Writer, Editor, Educator, Artist

Revised lectures into Powerpoint format and added narration

On to this week's lecture.

In today's lecture, you will learn the causes of the.....blah
blah blah blah blah

Added interactivity with checks for understanding

What was the main cause of the Civil War?

hmmmmmm.....I better rewind
the video and listen to that part again

Do you offer a free account?

Yes, but free accounts are limited to 100 learner attempts/month (attempts reset on the first of each month), no direct video upload, as well as have limited access to PlayPosit's broader feature offerings. The 100 learner attempt means that each teacher attempt gets 100 learner attempts per calendar month, total. So, for example, if you have a single class of 25 students, you can assign 4 bulbs per month to that class.

How to Incorporate Playposit into your Course

- Find a video you want to use or create your own video
- Create a bulb and add video
- Add interactivity (interactions)
- Configure bulb playback
- Create class/add students
- Assign bulb
- Monitor responses

INTERNATIONAL I.P. LAW

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

6

This week, Stan Muller teaches you how intellectual property law functions internationally. Like, between countries. Well, guess what. There's kind of no such thing as international law. But we can talk about treaties. There are a bevy of international treaties that regulate how countries deal with each others' IP. The upside is that this cooperation tends to foster international trade. The downside is, these treaties tend to stifle creativity by making it harder to shorten copyright terms. You win some, you lose some.
